

Bumper & McDog™ Fun, Friends, and the First Day of School

All Four Bumper & McDog Books Now Available At:

Amazon, Walmart.com, Barnes & Noble, and some local libraries.

Overview

Starting school can feel scary. Fun, Friends, and the First Day of School helps children feel more confident as they navigate new routines and friendships.

How the Story Supports Social-Emotional Learning

By focusing on effort rather than outcomes, the story reinforces a growth mindset and helps children see bravery as something that develops over time.

Key Skills & Themes

- Perseverance
- Working memory
- Flexible thinking
- Emotional regulation

Details

- Age range: 3–5
- Hardcover, Paperback, Ebook
- Made for executive function development, classroom discussions, and home use

Ideal for children learning to navigate new routines and friendships.

About The Author

Richard Mueller is a Sonoma County-based children's book author and illustrator. He creates picture books that support social-emotional learning and kindergarten readiness through storytelling, conversation, and play.

Contact

Website: greenpudding.com

eMail: info@greenpudding.com

Press Resources: greenpudding.com/press

Bumper & McDog™

green pudding press

